

Q. Do you like that [microphone], Mr. President?

The President. I wish there were a hunting season on these. [Laughter]

Prime Minister Major. I'm going to wake up one morning, and there will be one of those things on the pillow. [Laughter]

Q. And what will you say?

The President. Whatever it is, it will be known to all of England. I told the press once that there had been this raging debate for 12 years in America over the constitutional right to privacy and what it meant, whether we should keep it and what it should extend to, and all while, the boom mike had been abolishing it with no one noticing. [Laughter]
